

The GRIP databases contain thousands of items. We have prepared the following list of categories (non-exhaustive) synthesizing data collected through the different GRIP longitudinal studies. Please note that these data are not systematically available for all GRIP studies and/or all collection ages and that new categories may be added over time.

Should you find a category of interest for you, contact the Data Management Coordinator to check the availability of the data and then fill out a data request (DAD) (see Procedure for Access to data)
